

THE CLEWER INITIATIVE

Session One: Introduction to Modern Slavery in the UK

Caroline Barnard is the Communications Officer for The Clewer Initiative, a Church of England project helping churches and wider faith networks respond to modern slavery in their communities. In her role she writes and delivers training, creates resources for churches and communities, and raises awareness of the issue through social media and The Clewer Initiative's website.

In this session you will learn what modern slavery is, where in the UK it can be found, the signs you should be looking out for, and how you can report it. Using case studies, statistics, and films you will leave with an understanding of the issue and how it affects vulnerable people in the UK.
